

Learn Animal Reiki

Animals love receiving Reiki healing energy. They sense the loving intention of the sender allowing for deep relaxation and maximum benefits. Reiki never causes additional stress, pain or discomfort.

Reiki is both a complement and an alternative to traditional veterinary treatments.

Anyone can learn how to share Reiki. Get started with this Reiki Level 1 class.

During this class you will receive:

- ✓ A history and knowledge of Usui Reiki
- ✓ A first level Reiki attunement
- ✓ A process for Reiki self-treatment
- ✓ Instructions for giving hands-on Reiki
- ✓ An understanding of our energy system
- ✓ Five Reiki precepts
- ✓ A mini Reiki treatment
- ✓ Practice giving Reiki to another
- ✓ A Reiki level 1 course manual
- ✓ An invitation to become a practitioner

From the horse's mouth (Testimonials)

"After the first treatment Gypsy seemed lighter, more genuinely affectionate, less desperate. She stopped peeing in inappropriate places and seemed to have stopped stripping off her fur (some was even growing back)." M. McGee & cat

"Freida sees to be doing a lot better this last week and is a lot more calm." M. Thornsteinson & Chihuahua

"Domino is continuing to improve. I am now able to tube-feed him only 4 times per day, rather than every 2 hours." S Herben & cat

"The next day Obi-wan kept coming to me with a look that seemed to say: come on, you give me some of that Reiki energy." E. Klemm & horse
